“ I played golf with Jim in the Hodge Senior League on several occasions.. Always a gentleman on and off the course. He will be missed. Richard Johns

“ I met Jim many years ago on the golf course. We became very good friends and enjoyed many golf trips. I really enjoyed his singing and acting and made as many of his performances as possible.
We were both able to cope with the loss of our wives to cancer after many beautiful years together. We would confide in each other and provide that message to make life worth living. I will truly miss these conversations.
God be with the Wakeman family and friends during this time.

“ I worked with Jim both in the military and at the State Emergency Management Agency. Jim was a fine man and a good friend. I also visited with Jim as he performed with Jefferson City vocal groups. He loved to sing and had a tremendous voice. He was a kind and considerate man and we will miss him here on earth. --COL (Retired) John Tandy

“ It was a privilege and honor to work with COL Wakeman during my time in the Missouri Army National Guard. He never met anyone who he didn't like. Rest in Peace my friend. CW2 Gerald Chambers (Retired)

“ I served with Jim at the state headquarters of the Missouri National Guard. He was always looking out for opportunities to help others. He called me one day and suggested that there was a active duty tour available teaching ROTC at Warrensburg and would I be interested in taking that job. That call started a military career path ending at the Pentagon, where I retired as a colonel in the Missouri National Guard. I had a successful 18 year second career as a lobbyist where I retirement as the Legislative Director for the National Guard Association of the US . If it wasn't for his thoughtful call, none of this would have happened. I probably would have stayed in Eldon raising turkeys. I will always remember that phone call which changed my life.

“ Jim was a man of intelligence, honor, leadership, caring and love. He will be greatly missed. We have great memories of golfing, singing, and performing. Our sincere sympathy to the family and loved ones.
All the way my Savior leads me
O the fullness of His love!
Perfect rest to me is promised
In my Father's house above.
When my spirit, clothed immortal,
Wings its flight to realms of day
This my song through endless ages:
Jesus led me all the way.

“ "I might not be the best artilleryman, but I believe I know how to manage people." No truer words have been said. I enjoyed serving under him as the Captain of B-129 FA in Chillicothe in 1971. Also, working with the Highway Patrol in Jeff City, I would run into him ever so often. I was always happy to see and talk to him. He was always glad to see me. We were not close but I will miss him too.

“ My deepest condolences to you and your loved ones on the passing of Coach Wakeman. With deep sympathy and fond memories I just read his obit. Back in 1975, I was a green freshman in his American History class and also played basketball.
He was always kind, encouraging, fair, and inspirational as he brought the best out in us.
Prayers of peace and love for to you.

“ Jim and I knew each other from CBC'63. Occasionally sharing rides since we were both East of Grand people. He grew up near my father's physician office. Always a nice person and those who loved him will be sharing a huge lose.

“ I served under Col Wakeman while in the 129FA MOARNG and had Jeremy as a Masters student. My condolences and respect to the family. Jim was a great commander and an even better man. While I had many occasions to experience his bass and sometimes even his tenor voice I didn't realize that he could also put it to music until today.

“ I knew Jim, mostly through his wife Suzie. He always seemed very reserved and formal with me--a little intimidating. Until one night when I had to drop off something for Suzie after dark. As I approached the house, I heard him open the breezeway door and softly call Suzie's pet cat. He was saying, "Here Patches, come here Baby," in the softest, most coaxing tone. I had to suppress a laugh, because I didn't want to ruin his tough guy persona!!! A stern guy with a very soft heart.

“ It was a great honor and pleasure to know COL. (R) Wakeman and his amazing wife Susie. He was very instrumental in guiding my career and supporting me along the way. He knew both my children from his/their involvement in music and theater here in the Jefferson City area. He was a great friend, boss, soldier and human being. From all of my family to his family our thoughts and prayers are with you. He will be missed and always remembered. RIP my friend.

“ He was always COL Wakeman to me until later in my career when he insisted I call him Jim. Business and Profession turned into Friendship as it sometimes does and I grew to love and admire him as a person. Tailwinds forever my Friend!

“ Jim and Susie were good friends and we will always have them in our hearts. We have many photos of them at Guard, Capitol and events in Jefferson City. Skip and Jim had many conversations about serving in Vietnam. After Jim was promoted in the Guard , Skip told him to see who his friends were previously because many would want to be his friend now, Jim told him about a year later that Skip's word had certainly been true and laughed. Everyone liked Jim and Susie. We can't believe they are both gone from us now. A great loss to their friends and their family and our country.

“ Dennis and I knew Jim and Suzie when they lived in Jefferson City, MO. They were the most loving and caring people we knew. Both were giant Christians and had a deep sense peace about their faith and lives. I believe Suzie and Jim are now dancing together in heaven with big, big smiles on their faces. Our prayers go out to family and friends left here. May we all meet together in heaven in our time.

“ I taught and coached at Lafayette HS in St Joseph and had the pleasure of meeting Jim on the track at the Maryville Relays. Then a few years later I visited him again in Jefferson City while he was the Chief-of-Staff for the Missouri National Guard. I always considered him a honorable and decent man. He will be missed.
