“ I was just thinking about you the other day...thinking how I should look you up. Now I wish I wouldn't have waited because its too late. So many memories I could share...we had so much fun when we were younger. There are so many memories that I will cherish forever. It may have seemed like a lifetime since we had talked, but you were always close to my heart. Rest easy old friend. Until we meet again.”

“ Uncle Alex, where do I start? You were always more than an uncle to me, more like my annoying big brother. Every time the family got together you were always the comedic relief. We knew you were in pain but you never let it show, that's not how you wanted us to remember you. Unfortunately you've gained your wings so soon but now you are free. I miss you so much and I wish we were able to have more memories with you but you were called home. So we celebrate your life. The imprints of your loving and genuine soul will stick with all of us forever.

Love you always,
Markita ❤️

“ The time i had with alex was some of the best times of my life. Alex was fearless kind and funloving in a time when i need someone like him. Meeting him when i was younger changed my life. We had some great times in that tracker. I still laugh about our friendship. God bless you alex. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of his friends and family.

“ A part of my heart passed away when you left us Alex. My best friend. My fam. My homie. You taught me so much. I looked up to you, and idolized you, as so many others did. I could talk for days about all the good times we had, the dumb things we did, or the times we saved each other from sticky situations. I still listen to our old skool jams & it makes me smile remembering all the good times skating together at the rink, countless hours turning me into a pool shark, and staying up all night playing Tekken... You pinned me with the nickname Stephi-Pooh, and it's stuck with me ever since. Your last night with us, you knew I was there with you. I saw it when you opened your eyes as I touched your arm and rubbed your bald head. You knew Pooh was always there for you, and I wasn't leaving your side until you were ready. You will always be with me in my memories, Alex, and hold a very special place in my heart. Your beautiful soul will forever live on in everyone's heart that you touched. 831 homie. Forever.

“ Alex, you've earned your wings~Heaven has called upon you today little brother, leaving so many words left to say. But now it's too late, for your time has come, words unspoken; I am sure everybody has some. Regrets and wishes are probably there too, but lasting forever are memories of you. I love you so much Kiki! I know you're in a better place. I'm sure god already knows you love to eat but you may need to remind him from time to time. I'll see you when i earn my wings!

Love,
Your big sis Julie (Joujou)

“ My loving little brother, you were taken from us way too soon. I will always cherish the memories I had with you. Everyone who knew you loved you but God loved you more. There was always peace in your heart and I will forever remember your kind words to me when I was feeling down. We will eventually see you again. Until then, I know you will be watching over us. I love you so much!
