

Allen Dwayne Yates

May 30, 1964 - September 8, 2015

Allen D. Yates, 51, of Kearney, MO passed away peacefully at NorthCare Hospice on September 8, 2015. Allen worked for Leisure Mountain Custom Log Homes, Inc. and Lone Wolf Custom Log Homes, Inc. as a custom log builder. He was passionate about his work and was well known for his creativity, honesty, and the quality of his work over his thirty year career. Allen was also known for his love of the ocean and of course, country music, particularly Travis Tritt and his innate ability to apply the lyrics of his favorite songs to his life of hunting, fishing, and country living. Allen leaves behind his wife, Mona, son, Dakotah, mother, Patricia Brooks, stepsister Angie Nible, and stepbrother, Heath Yates. A private family memorial service is to follow. Arr. Cashatt Family Funeral Home.

“ We became friends with Allen and Mona while they were building our home and each log has a piece of Allen's heart and soul in it. In the years since, when Allen would call and chat with Jim he called Jim "Gaylord" and Jim called him "Ollie" and their "snappy banter" was always filled with humor. We are deeply saddened at the loss of Allen and his talent, but he remains in our hearts and we will always be thankful we were privileged to know him.

“ The many summer days spent at Camp Geiger, The Camp outs, Canoe and fishing trips with Boy Scout Troop 60. The days after school got out for the day, goofing around. To many memories to pick just one, I'm sorry we lost track of each other. Pat, Mona and family I'm sorry for your loss.
