“ I met Cheryl riding the Metro bus and parking at Walgreens. She was also so friendly and I enjoyed her company. I am so sorry for your loss, but remember she is resting in the arms of Jesus, and is not having any more pain. We will all see her again when we are called home.

“ I was introduced to Cheryl by one of the bus buddies! She shared stories of her life as a newlywed when her husband was in the military. She had great stories! Heaven just gained a lovely lady!

“ I met Cheryl on the Metro, waiting at the same bus stop. I remember her smile and humor and the many conversations we shared of our pets. She was always excited to tell a story of her beloved Sweat Pea. She was a good friend and great bus buddy who never forgot her friends after retirement. It was such a delight to see and talk with Cheryl when she was able to join the Bus Buddies Breakfasts. I am thankful that I was able to visit Cheryl on two occasions with other Bus Buddies; she never lost the gleam in her eyes. Rest in peace, dear friend -- someday we will meet again.

“ I met Cheryl while riding The Metro and we waited at the same bus stop together. She was a sweet lady with a huge heart. I have driven by her house for the past year and lift a prayer of healing for her so many times. Great is our God who heals and restores when we enter into his presence and his Kingdom. Peace and hope to the family of Cheryl.

“ Cheryl was a great friend and bus rider for many of us who spent every morning and evening with her on the Metro going to and from home and work before she retired. She was always so pleasant and easy to talk to. As a group, we shared many joys, stories and laughter with her in our group of bus buddies. She even made it to a couple of our breakfast outings after retirement. We visited with her in July and again in October and are so thankful we did. She lit up the room with joy and we could just feel her love. She will be greatly missed.

“ I met Cheryl on the Metro going to and from work. We became bus buddies and spent time together away from the workplace. She will be missed. I have some fond memories of Cheryl and I am so grateful she is walking with God now and is at peace and her body is restored. I pray she and her beloved dog, Sweet Pea, will be together again one day in paradise. In loving memory, Nancy Black.

“ My family met Cheryl almost 35 years ago when we moved in next door to her. She was always a good, cheerful neighbor. It was sad to see her in a nursing home in her later years. We will miss her.
