

David Drotar

October 4, 1955 - August 30, 2015

David Drotar (aka ZZ Top), 59, passed away at home of lung cancer on August 30, 2015. He leaves behind his father, Elias Drotar and wife Petra, of Idaho, two sisters; Cher Coulter of Idaho and Kathryn Walker of Kansas, two brothers, Kent and Kirk Drotar of Colorado, a step-brother, Scott Spicer of California, a step-sister, Kim Gjere of Colorado, his children; Sky Mathos, Kelly Drotar and Kenneth Drotar, three granddaughters, Genicka, Karina and Zaliah all of Florida. He is preceded in death by his mother, Michelle Hathaway, his step-father, Kenneth Whaley, his step-mother, Elizabeth Drotar, a step-sister Leslie Spicer Burke, and his grand-parents..

Dave went to grade school in Arvada Colorado and High School in Bethany Missouri. He then spent many years living in North Carolina, Utah, Idaho and Florida before making his home in the Kansas City metro area in 2006.

Dave spent his adult career as a carpenter, cabinet maker and auto mechanic. There was nothing Dave could not fix. He helped many friends throughout his life and will be remembered for his willingness to give, his kind heart, his sense of humor and his love of the outdoors and blues music. He will be truly missed by all his family and friends.

A celebration of his life will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the American Cancer Society. A cure for cancer must be found.
