“ David was the man that thought of everyone first before himself. "Take care bud yeah, yeah" was what he told me the last time he saw me. I can't believe your gone, way too soon brother. I miss your humor, you telling about your girls (with so much pride), memories of your family, your love of sports and camping. Until we meet again, JJ

“ My most favorite memories with David was when he and my husband Joseph would get together... they would have jokes and made me laugh so hard my jaws would hurt. They would go on YouTube and go through one after the other of hysterical videos. David, we are going to miss you more than there are words to Express. You were an amazing, loving, compassionate, giving, thoughtful man. The best Daddy ever, who loved his girls with every beat of his heart. You were our family, not by blood, but with all the love we have. May you rest in peace. We will remember you always and forever.

“ Still at a lose for words. David my closest friend in culinary school. As Ray said , the four of us. David, Tim(me), Ray, Sara were in separable . We created lifetime memories as we cruised threw 2yrs of pretty influential times on Treasure Island with a million dollar view. David and I continued on to San Diego to start our careers. Let me tell you we did it right. All the other students were envious of us as we-said our goodbyes.. About David I always looked up to him cause he wanted the best for me and was fierce guy in kitchen. I told my family today , this is gonna take a lifetime to get over. This was 2001 . To this day we still kept in touch and talked bout all the memories we experienced. I love you bud(tears) . Til we meet again, I'm gonna hold it down on the memories. I'm gonna take that trip we talked bout in Sept. Won't be the same without you. Rest easy bud.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting the infamous "Eccles" brothers while in school. David was one of the most sweetest people I've honestly ever known. He has definitely left his mark on the world and will be missed by many. RIP My friend. Positive thoughts to your family, may they find comfort in the many memories they had with you.
