“ It's only been a few short days since you have left us . I miss you very badly. It is very quite here with out you,. I miss your ornery ness and that smile. Know that I loved you so very much you were my soul mate. I know you and Killer are reunited give him a hug for me. I know the both of you are in a better place and not in pain . Rest in peace my husband I love you to the moon and back. Till we meet again

I never met David in person but I probably spent as much or more time talking with him than most people that I know. We chatted almost nightly until this Fall. My last time talking with D was just about a month ago. He told me that he knew he had a long road ahead and that it was probably gonna get bad. I don't think any of us realized how bad. I will miss all the laughs we shared over the years (sometimes at his expense). I will miss boss killing with him. I will miss gathering resources (wait, that was Gayle). D will be missed by all that knew him in real life and all of us that knew him as Dor. RIP my friend. Sue

Gayle, you and David were my favorite couple at the casino, loved it when you guys were in my section. He always cracked me up, he had that deep voice. Someday I'll tell you about that time when we all were at Argosy 20 years ago. Wished I could have seen you guys more.

Prayers for strength Gayle.. love ya 💕

Interesting to find this - this sorry excuse for a person spent his time terrifying me & likely others during my early days of high school. I can't picture this animal resurrecting himself later in life.
