“ Coming up on 8 years, big brother - always swore I'd never bail you out of jail. One of the biggest regrets of my life that I did, Labor Day weekend 2014.

Was that one month of freedom before you were murdered worth it? Wish you were still on the planet with us all. Love, Kay

Please 🙏 Kay, I just found out. I cannot imagine David gone!! I AM SO SORRY. THIS WORLD SEEMS 🌍😞 SO MUCH LONELIER. Please I need to know, "murdered"?

God bless to you and your family. I just found out today, I just wanted to talk to him, he always had a way of lifting my spirits. When I was in the hospital, it was only him I woke up and saw. He is an angel, I pray 🙏 you answer, WHO in God's name hurt him! This is Sandy, my no# is 913-306-8476. Call if you like, he adored you, you had the BEST 4 A BROTHER. BLESS YOU.

“ David I remember the first time I met you and smile all the while. It was a hot summer night I had a date and we were bar b quing, when you and my brother decided to join me and my date for dinner. It was fine with me there I sat at the round table of D's Denny, Dean & and of course you David.
Dinner was done my date was talking about something of which I heard nothing too busy feeling the electricity running thru your viens. My date left and we danced to the RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS like Indians doing a rain dance. Ironically later that night it stormed fiercly as we walked to the local closed swimming pool and swam like teenagers in love. I knew I was in trouble but it was worth it in the end. I got to spend time with a man who was as unusual as they come and loved that about you. I lost Willow a few months ago. Everytime I think of her I think of you and the night we got her. You held her up and said "We will call her Willow". That's all he wrote. Love you, Mink.

“ I am David's (and Kay and Jon) cousin. We used to have family vacations to visit them when I was little. Since I was younger than all of them most of my memories are of being too young to be involved in what ever they were up to. But I do remember running around chasing fire flies in their yard at night. And either Jon or David gave me my first (and only) motorcycle ride when I was a teenager.

I am so sorry for the loss of your brother. My prayers for comfort and peace go out to the whole family. Love you!

“ David and I were great friends throughout grade school and high school. He was amazingly intelligent, strong and fearless. We spent so much time together, and I have so many memories. But what I remember most is the kindness and the hand of friendship shown to me by David and his family. My condolences to Jon and Kay and their families, to David's fiancée and friends. God's blessings upon you all.

“ I grew up with David (Catman) Spry. We played ball, partied, boxed, played chess, swam, discussed everything from music to philosophy and then partied some more. We were kindred spirits and Dave's youthful antics in the area are legendary to anyone who knew him. I've met many people over the years and miles I shall always remember my old friend as one of the most naturally intelligent, interesting, talented, funny and dynamic people I've yet had the pleasure of knowing. Just like the cats he loved, he seemed to have nine lives and lived each to its fullest. He had a spirit as big as the planet, yet more importantly, deep beneath that rough exterior, a genuinely good heart to go with it. David, you were a friend and brother and I'll always remember and love you. So keep swinging and screaming freely through the trees of the cosmos and hopefully we'll run together again one day my man!

Thanks Steve for your nice comment and thoughts on David. I never knew him very well, even though he was in my class at Queen. Your description of him shows how much your lives connected. Sorry for the loss of your friend. Prayers said.
