“ I grew up across the street from Dominic and Mary in Gracemor. They were always like my second parents. I will never forget the stories that he would tell about the adventures that he had at work, most not family friendly, but funny as you know what. And all of the fireworks that they would buy for the 4th of July kept Little Dominic and me busy for a week blowing things up in the creek behind the house. I'm sure the other neighbors hated us for a couple of weeks every year.

Although I had lost touch with the Raccuglia's over the past several years, I have never lost my love for the family, as they truly are extended family for me. I've missed them ever since they left the neighborhood when I was 13 years old, as Dominic, Jr. was like a brother to me.

I hope Big Dominic is keeping all of his old friends, family and coworkers doubled over with laughter up there as he looks down on family that he has left behind.

“ Another one of my Dad's friends has joined him. He gave me my first fire helmet when I was 5 years old. He was also one of many that spoke for me as I was trying to get hired on the KCFD. Occasionally, he would call me at the Union Hall, stop by the station to check on me, or send me a little cartoon he drew of me. Thank you for all of your help, and do me one last favor; tell my Dad I love him and miss him. Rest easy my friend and Union Brother. I owe you a debt that I can never repay.
