“ For Donald Frank Knoop

*Your long fight is over your pain is at end For peace, it has come to you God's angels he did send.
He walked with you through the valley
He carried you through the sand
And when he saw the pain was great
He Said "Child come take my hand."
As we grieve here and cry our tears
Your surrounded by love Whole, happy and without pain
And shed of all your fears.
We know you watch over us and whisper "Don't cry, For one day we will meet again this isn't goodbye."
