“ My sincere thoughts and prayers to your loved one's, Donna, who suffer from your absence. I just made it back from being out of town and I truly missed being able to see you again after many years. You are a loving and wonderful person. We will all miss you. I am so sorry I couldn't talk to you again. With love and healing light to all of your loved one's left on earth. Peace be with you all. Stephanie Hager
