Donna Lee Stimac, born February 21, 1940 in Junction City, KS passed away April 3, 2018 in the company of her son Tony.

Donna was preceded in death by her husband, Mike Stimac, her mother-in-law Margarite Stimac, her daughter-in-law, Tammy Stewart, her brothers, Leonard and Wilbur Orr, and her parents Hazel and John Orr.

Donna is survived by her son, Tony Stewart, her daughter-in-law Jill Stewart, her grandson Hayden Stewart, her step children, her brother Elwood Orr, and her ex-husband and best of friends, John Stewart.

Donna was full of spirit and took on many challenges in her life. She was never bitter. She always found humor and shared it unselfishly. When she went to any event, she always looked like a movie star. She was beautiful inside and out. Donna had a love for dogs that was well known. Muffin, Scotty, Pepper, Sammie, Tootsie, and Sassie all leave paw prints to heaven. Donna's best years were living at Lake Pomme de Terre with her husband of 25 years, Mike Stimac. She kept up the home during the week while Mike worked in Kansas City returning on the weekends for some rest and relaxation. Together they enjoyed a peaceful and humble life at the lake. They enjoyed having Tony Stewart and his family and friends for the holidays. Everyone enjoyed each other's company and had lots of fun.

The family would like to recognize Jill Stewart for all the love and compassion she gave to Donna over the past 7 years. Donna was blessed with the best 2 daughter-in-laws a mother could hope for.
