

Doris Loftus

September 8, 1941 - January 12, 2016

Doris Ann Loftus ended her long and courageous fight against cancer on Jan. 12, 2016. She joined her husband James Edward Loftus in heaven along with her beloved daughter Kelly Lynn Loftus whom she spoke of daily. She also is reunited with her parents Charles Wormington and Alice Karlene Wormington. Doris was a graduate of Van Horn High School and retired from the Federal Government. She was a devoted mother and grandmother and she leaves behind her daughter, Karla Russell and grandson, Christopher Marshment. Doris also leaves behind her baby dog, Chloe. She was a dog lover and regularly gave to animal organizations as a way to honor them. In addition Doris leaves behind a sister and brother-in-law, Pat and Norm Stephenson and her sister, Bonnie Saye and friend, Don Funero. Doris' family would like to thank NorthCare Hospice for the care they provided and to the nurses and staff at North Kansas City Hospital and Dr. DeWolfe and his office. A Celebration of Life will be held at her home at 11AM, Saturday, Feb. 20, 2016. Rest in peace, Mom and Grandma. Fond memories and words of comfort may be shared at: www.CashattFamilyFunerals.com.
