

Dorothy Novacek

July 23, 1931 - August 12, 2013

Dorothy Novacek, 82 of Kansas City, lifelong native resident of Omaha, Nebraska passed away on Monday evening, Aug. 12, 2013. Dorothy was born July 23, 1931 in Omaha, Nebraska to Hubert and Margaret Novacek. Dorothy took great care and precision taking care of her family. She provided well for them; retiring from the Federal Reserve Bank. Dorothy had a true passion for her loved ones, especially her grandchildren, Andrea and Mathew. Mathew remembers fondly visiting Grandma at her place in Omaha and she took him to Walgreens where he could pick out anything that he wanted. Andrea remembers that it was her grandma who taught her how to color in the lines with great precision. Her grandma would stay up late when Andrea stayed over and they would read the 'funnies' until wee hours, often waking up others who were trying to sleep.

Survivors include her daughter, Lori Vaccaro and her husband, Allen; one brother, Jack (Pat) Novacek; one sister, Carol Kroupa; two grandchildren; Mathew and Andrea and many nieces and nephews.
