“ *Miss you Uncle although it has been years. We share the same blood, tears and I will forever miss you. I made it through college Uncle, I wish you were there, I had a baby and wished were there, every moment I wished your were there. Now your up there and I can't see you but I know your there. I just saw this. Just found out a few minutes ago. He was my dad but I never saw him. I was adopted when I was 3. This is the first picture I've ever even seen of him

I am Eva's sister and also Eldon's other daughter. I met him once like 12 years ago. We would love to connect with our biological family. Please contact us.

I was lucky to know Eldon for the last 4 years. He was a great person that would do anything he could for you. He never had much, but would help in any way he could. He was in a lot of pain this last year and just didn't feel good, he lost a lot of weight and we all kept telling him to go get checked out. Unfortunately it was too late when he finally went to the hospital. He is in a much better place and is no longer in pain.

I wish someone had told us he was sick. We would've come to see him. I saw he was in hospice before he passed. If anyone could get in touch with me either on Facebook or thru my email & I will be glad to give you my number. This is so heartbreaking, even more so since we didn't get a chance to say goodbye. My email is evaballinger@gmail.com
