

Elizabeth Jaeger

February 12, 1935 - July 8, 2013

Elizabeth Ann (Williams) Jaeger, age 78, died unexpectedly on July 8, 2013 at home in Kansas City Mo, after a long struggle with Diabetes and Heart Disease. Family and friends knew Elizabeth by her nickname (Bernie). Bernie was born February 12, 1935, in Springfield, Missouri, the daughter of Gordon F Williams and Florence Hendrix. She attended Central High School, and later community college receiving a minor in accounting.

Bernie thoroughly enjoyed traveling, classic musicals and Bingo. She traveled extensively, throughout Europe and the United States. She later settled down, to live in Wichita, KS with her oldest brother Bill Williams, after the loss of his wife; Betty. She enjoyed her time in Wichita and made many lifelong friends there. With the passing of her brother Bill, she moved to Kansas City to be with her son and grandchildren. Family and friends were Bernie's passion and delight. As time progressed, Bernie was enthusiastic in being with her friends at the local Bingo hall and very passionate for reading a wide array of books ranging from Sci-Fi to novels.

Bernie is survived by her son Robert and his wife Judy; Grandchildren Julia, Chris, Robyn, Michael; and Rebecca; Great grandchildren McKinzie, Madilyn and Cody; as well as her Brothers John Williams and Dean Williams. She also leaves behind numerous loving relatives and friends.

The family wishes to thank all for their love and support. She spoke often and frequently of her childhood days in Springfield and of all her experiences and acquaintances over the years. May she Rest in Peace, her long journey has ended leaving a legacy of memories to all of us.

A memorial service will be held for family and friends at 2:00 PM Sunday, July 14, 2013 at Cashatt Family Funerals; 7516 NW Prairie View Rd, Platte Woods, MO.
