“ I have such fun memories spending time at the Tucker house while growing up. Her daughters Debbie and Michelle are good friends of mine. I know they are feeling the loss of spending time with their mom but I also know how much they are comforted in the knowledge that she is now with her Heavenly Father. As Christians that is what we aspire to do. Love and prayers to the entire Tucker family, Gail (Price) Scott

“ Know that our thoughts and prayers are with your family. We have enjoyed visiting with Faye several times throughout the past few years at New Mark. Our singing group, the Pine Ridge Presbyterian Jubilaires, last sang there in September. During our final song, "May the Good Lord Keep and Bless You," I went to her in the audience and sang to her and she was brimming with love and encouragement. I am grateful for the friendship that we shared during her time at New Mark. She always spoke highly of her children and never failed to mention you to us.
