“ My condolences to Jerry's family. He was a fixture at Shoal Creek, and he will truly be missed. We could always count on him coming to play a round, even in the coldest weather. He was dedicated to the game he loved. The entire staff at Shoal Creek enjoyed having him as a member over the years as he always brightened the day of anyone he came in contact with.

Marilyn ...and all of Jerry's family. Here is a poem that has brought me comfort and I hope it brings each of you comfort also.

All is Well

Death is nothing at all.

I have only slipped away into the next room.

I am I, and you are you.

Whatever we were to each other, that we still are.

Call me by my old familiar name,

Speak to me in the easy way which you always used.

Put no difference in your tone,

Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Play, smile, think of me and if you want to, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,

Let it be spoken without effect,

Without the trace of a shadow on it.

Life means all that it ever meant.

It is the same as it ever was;

There is unbroken continuity.

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you,

For an interval,

Somewhere very near,

Just around the corner.

All is well.

Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.

One brief moment and all will be as it was before.

How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting, when we meet again.
