“ Dad, I still can't believe this is real. I can't believe you are not here! Im sorry I forced you to go to the hospital but I can't imagine what could have happened if you hadn't. Im sorry that you had to spend your last 50 days there being poked. Its not fair that this happened. It's not fair that it took your mind and dignity . It left you helpless and unable to tell us what's happening to you. I hope you knew that mom never left your side. She was there everyday holding your hand and fighting for you. This was torture for her and all of us left here to grieve. I never said thank you enough. I never told you I loved you enough. You help us all so much, even when you didn't feel good or didn't feel like it. Thank you for taking care of mom most of all! Life will never the same without you here. I love you!

“ My deepest condolences to family and friends. Although I didn't know him well Ger was kind enough to help me and my son along side Phillip with some car repairs, and expected nothing in return. (Thank you Ger for your kindness) He seemed like a very giving and loving man. I do recall him having quite a sense of humor from my few interactions with him. May he rest in peace with all those who have lost dear loved ones, including myself. Prayers for strength and healing to everyone affected by the loss.
