

Helga Thelma Clara Hanek

October 9, 1936 - August 17, 2015

Helga Hanek, 78, passed away peacefully at NorthCare Hospice House in the early morning hours of Monday, August 17, 2015 after a three year battle with leukemia. She was a strong woman who held tightly to her German heritage after she defected with her husband to the United States in the 1960's to follow his career as a professional soccer player. She is survived by her husband Janos, her daughters Daniela, Gaby, and Mo, son-in-law, Jeff, and grandchildren Alexis, Sydney, and Logan. An intimate gathering in celebration of Helga's life has been scheduled for Friday evening. For more details contact family or Cashatt Family Funeral Home at 587-8200. “ When I was a little kid, she helped my mother in babysitting me. We lived close by in Alkmaar. Have still fond memories of her. Sorry to hear of her dead, even if it is 10 years past. Just finding out now. Wishing al the best to the family. Best regards. Dimitri Habich
