

Jack Tanner

March 2, 1956 - January 9, 2016

Jack A Tanner ;(59} Smithville MO. passed away on January 09, 2016 at NorthCare Hospice House with his wife and son by his side. Jack is survived by his wife, Diana and son Jack Trae of the home. He is preceded in death by his mother, Edna Tanner. He is also survived by his father, Jack M Tanner of Gladstone, MO , sister, Gaileen Jackson of KC, MO, many cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Jack graduated from Oak Park HS in 1975 and worked many years as a Journeyman Lather, an avid race fan and driver, well known hot rodder and “metal wizard”. Jack fabricated parts for anything that rolled and helped many with parts for their cars or trucks. He is gone too soon and will be missed by all.

The Tanner family will receive guests for a casual memorial service to honor Jack A Tanner on Saturday January 16, 2016 at noon. Masonic service will begin at 1:00 pm followed by worship service with dinner to follow.

Jack and I had some good times in the 1970s. Sitting in the garage watching him paint and build pre 48 cars and slot of car club meetings
