

James Edward Loftus

March 8, 1941 - April 22, 2014

James Edward Loftus was born March 8, 1941 in Kansas City, Missouri and passed away April 22, 2014 at his home. In passing he joins his daughter, Kelly Lynn Loftus and his parents, George and Mary Loftus and his uncle Ed. He is survived by his wife Doris Ann Loftus who took excellent care of Jim during his illness, allowing him to remain at home as he wished. Also surviving is his daughter, Karla Ann Russell and grandson, Christopher Marshment, who he fondly called "his boy"; his sister, Elizabeth Loftus of Carmel, CA; his brother, George Andrew Loftus, Jr. And his wife Minnie of Memphis, TN; nephew, George Andrew Loftus, III, two nieces, Theresa Lehman, and Susan Moore and their families; his beloved cocker spaniels; Chloe and Delilah; his best friend from the Coast Guard, Robert Andrew, Chula Vista, CA and good friends and sister-in-law Pat and NR Stephenson; cousin and best friend, Delores and Nevin Place; Warmington Family and Pat Dignan family. Jim was a Veteran of the Coast Guard and later the reserves, he retired from TWA. Jim loved sports, especially baseball, playing on several leagues. The family would like to thank Dr. Link, Chaplain Ben and Gordon of NorthCare Hospice for their wonderful dedicated care during Jim's illness. Donations suggested to either NorthCare Hospice or the Humane Society of KC. Memorial Service will be at a later date. Until we meet again - we will miss and love you always.
