July 29, 1953 - August 18, 2016

Janet Rae Haley, 63 of Kansas City, MO went home to see her son, husband, and parents around 1am on August 18, 2016 after a courageous battle of cancer.

Janet Haley (Smith) was born on July 29, 1953, in St. Louis, MO. She grew up in Sedalia, MO where she was a graduate of State Fair Community College. Where she earned her L.P.N. degree. Her spitfire attitude, colorful, and passionate personality will never be forgotten, but will be dearly missed. She knew how to light up a room and tell her fellow co-workers, "ladies today it's going to be assholes and elbows lets go." She was extremely smart, funny, and always knew how to entertain and make people feel welcome. Janet was preceded in death by a son Kyle Haley, a husband Dr. Ted Haley, and two parents Edward and Vivian Smith; Survivors include: daughter Megan Haley of the home; Stepsons: Mark Haley and wife Linda of Shawnee, KS, and Nathan Haley and wife Amy, of Kansas City, MO; Stepdaughters: Tracey Haley of Independence, MO, Erin Martin and husband Trevis of Liberty, MO; Extended family Jeff Williams and wife Carolyn of Sedalia, MO; and 5 Grandchildren Donald, Sam, Connor, Camille, and Brooke; and many friends and family. “ I am very sorry for your loss. Janet and I were best friends in grade school. I was always spending the night with her. Her dad owned an electric motor repair shop on Main Street in Sedalia and sometimes on Friday night we would go with him. Then we would walk to the drug store a block away, sit in a booth with our Pepsi and laugh til we had stomach aches. When we went to high school in the eighth grade, we kinda went separate ways. I seen her at our 20 year reunion and we still could laugh together and have a good time. Again, I am very sorry for your loss.
