“ Janet was born on January 2, 1962 in Syracuse, NY to the parents of Edward and Clara DeLee Trotman. She exhibited an aptitude for poetry at a young age and even wrote her first book at the age of 12. After she graduated from Henniger High School in Syracuse, NY, she attended Saint Mary’s University of New Mexico and received her Bachelor’s degree in nursing.

Janet worked as a home health nurse in Kansas City while raising her three children until disability forced her to leave the workforce. Her passion then became honoring God through her poetry and spreading the word of God.

Janet struggled with health issues years and on February 22, 2015 Ms. Janet Lynn (Trotman) Mullaly, also known as “I Am Grace I Am”, was called home to be with God.

?She is survived by three children Aaron Mullaly, Joseph Mullaly, Roger Bell; daughter-in-law, Erin Bell; four grandchildren, Aiden, Lucas, Keaston, Arianna; sister, Jackie Hurley; brother-in-law, Patrick Hurley.

Her poetry can be viewed at www.abrandnewdayusa.com
