“ I remember A year ago just before Christmas. Jessie spoke to me for the first time in a yr. I hugged her and smiled and said this is the biggest Christmas present ever. A lot of great times here at the house. After a long day at work Jessie would give me the biggest smile and hug, kiss, even though somedays she didn't feel good I would give anything to bring it back :) I would give everyone a guitar in the house and show the kids the notes. Harley and Payton we would play and sing, swimming, Movies ect. Now everyone is gone- I cant even find my own son. I miss you guys. Happy Holidays to everyone in your families
