

John Bernard Mensch

November 25, 1927 - March 30, 2013

John Bernard Mensch was born in Detroit, Michigan on November 25, 1927 , the 2nd son of 4 boys and 1 girl. He served in the US Navy, Military Police and the Army Reserve. He graduated from Michigan State College with a degree in Education and the University of Missouri with a degree in Civil Engineering. Over the years John worked with a variety of construction companies including Massman, McKinley, Kelly Waterproofing, also Shell A & E, and Del Webb. He is survived by his brother, William from California, and his sister, Mary Anne of the home, a Sister-In-Law, Lynn and wonderful nieces and nephews in California, North Carolina, and Lawrence, Kansas. He is preceded in death by his baby boy, his older brother, Harold, and his youngest brother, Charles who died in Vietnam. He will share his brother's grave in the National Cemetery at Fort Leavenworth. A celebration of life will follow burial services in the near future. When John ran into Jesus' arms Saturday morning, it must have been like the reference of Nathaniel in John 1:27 "When Jesus saw Nathaniel coming to him, he saith of him, Behold he comes, in whom there is no guile!"
