

Joni Renee Somers

February 17, 1960 - April 21, 2015

Joni R. Somers, 55, of Kansas City, passed away April 21st, 2015 at her home.

Joni is preceded in death by her mother Judith Wakefield, step-father Jerry Wakefield, grandmother Maxine Fiscus and grandfather William Stratton.

Joni leaves behind her husband Bradley Somers, daughter Ciji (Ellerman) Gonzalez and husband Angel, her step sons Travis and Nick, and two grandsons, Cooper and Bentley. Her siblings Jodi Lindsay (Larry), Billy Fry (Norma), Barbara Baggett (Darrell), Jerri Huntley (Wayne) and Jeffrey Wakefield (Carmen). As well as many nieces and nephews.

Joni has been retired for many years. She worked at Sunshine Biscuit, Davis Automotive and the Depot in Avondale. She retired from construction in 2001. She spent the last few years of her life investing her time with her two grandsons Cooper and Bentley, the light of her life. Grandma Joni never said no to the boys and they were the three musketeers always looking for trouble. Joni enjoyed calling and waking up her family early in the morning to stay caught up on the family gossip. She looked forward to her monthly trips to the casino with Ciji to play the penny slots. She loved making people laugh and finding gifts to give. She was very generous. Visitation starting at 4:00 PM with Service at 5:30 PM at Northland Christian Church; 6120 NE 48th Street; KCMO 64119.

“ I already put this on Ciji's fb but in just the 20 minutes we were in the car together she was telling me how proud she was of Ciji and bragging on her. She said Ciji was a fighter and we all know she is. She made me laugh in just the short time we were in the car. I know she will be missed.

Mandi if you are present for the serve would be willing to get up and share that story?

Ciji Gonzalez - April 24, 2015 at 01:12 PM

If that's what you want, that's what I will do. Of course.
