“ Joyce enjoyed attending meetings of the Platte County Federated Republican Women. She could not drive and volunteers helped her out with rides in all kinds of weather. Years ago the group put together a cookbook to sell as a fundraiser. Joyce's recipes for Cheeseburger pie, Poulet de Roma and Easy Cheese Lasagna are still favorites today! Joyce is missed by many for her common sense advice and cheerful outlook.

“ I would sit with Joyce on her patio in nice weather and talk about news in the neighborhood. Joyce took an active interest in her community and couldn't understand why we couldn't get more people to attend our annual homeowners meeting. Joyce never missed a meeting and preferred a front row seat. Community was important to her.

AN

“ I was a neighbor of Joyce's. I know she loved God, believed in Jesus Christ, loved dogs, loved to eat good food and most of all loved to talk. I remember her last little dog, Rusty. Joyce make me promise her if she outlived Rusty I was to take care of him. Rusty went to the Rainbow Bridge last year. Rusty and Joyce are both now in heaven, enjoying some long walks, fun treats and catching up with long conversations with long lost friends. Eternal rest grant unto Joyce, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her, may she rest in peace. Amen. ~ Anna
