“ I remember Linda being at the house as a child with her husband and oldest son Stephen. My step Dad was Bill. He really is the one I called Dad as Kid. I loved going to Grandma and Grandpa Jordan. Linda was a wonderful person and I always loved her laughter. Sorry I lost contact with the family. I found out today Sat. that Linda had passed I send my condolences to the family.

Linda Armes Was My Sister in Law for almost 50 years. I remember Sundays at Grandma and Grampa Jordans House in Hamilton.all Holidays and Sundays were there.One Holiday I think it was Thanksgiving; ,all the Men were glued to the game.Linda walked to the front door and looked out the window and said "Look at the naked Lady" you never saw 5 men jump up so quickly in your whole life!Also there was the time that they left Shelly at Grandma 's probably had to many Kids to keep track of,lol.,but we hadn't left yet so Mike and I took her Home .that was before Cell Phones so they didn't know untill they got home .She had a sly and wicked sense of Humor..I will miss Her .
