“ Mr. Clark was a member of mine at the credit union. I am so thankful to have known this strong, amazing man. It was always joy to see him, something I looked forward to on a regular basis. He always had a short story to tell and when you asked him how he was, no matter what, he would always say, "oh well, just fine". Mr Clark was a fighter if I've ever seen one. He'd bend over backwards for his wife, his family and about anyone who crossed his path if he could. We all have something to learn from this man. You are forever in my heart Mr. Clark. May you rest in peace.
