

Lorne Paul Tataryn

October 9, 1952 - September 8, 2015

Lorne Tataryn, 62 of Weston, Missouri passed away peacefully at home surrounded by his loving wife, Trisha, and treasured family and friends. Lorne, a gifted metal sculptor, outdoorsman, and animal lover, especially his dogs, Lil' Guy and Tonka, was known for his creativity, being a cowboy, and having a great head of hair. Lorne was a loving father to his daughter, Melanie and her husband, Aristi, and was delighted by his granddaughter, Octavia. A visitation with family will be held at 5:30 with a casual celebration of life to follow at 6:15 on Friday, September 11, 2015 at the Bee Creek Shelter in the Weston Bend State Park, 16600 Hwy 45 North, Weston, MO. If you would like to make a donation in Lorne's name to help others in their fight, please visit the Gastric Cancer Foundation at www.gastriccancer.org. Fond memories of Lorne and words of comfort may be shared at: www.CashattFamilyFunerals.com.

“ I have many fond memories of my brother in law Lorne. When my husband and I purchased our first home, Lorne wanted to help us do some remodeling. He generously spent time with my husband and I planning and working on the remodel and taking us to his sources to purchase material.

I would always make sure he had a home cooked meal at the end of each of those days he so generously spent helping us. We shared many of laughs together.

Lorne is my hero as he never complained through his fight with cancer. Lorne is the strongest man I have ever met and I will miss him dearly.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, Love leaves a memory no one can steel.

“ Dear Trisha, family, and friends of Lorne,
I am deeply sorry for your loss. I hope that your memories of Lorne will bring you peace and comfort. I only met Lorne once, and I immediately liked him. He seemed like a gentle, and kind person. He must have also been an incredibly strong person, as I know he fought hard against his illness for a long time. I have made a contribution to the Gastric Cancer Foundation, in his memory.
Sending you much sympathy, and peace.

“ The funniest story I remember about Lorne concerned my mom, Vera, while she was living with us. Many of us know how much he liked to eat and especially pies for dessert. One holiday meal we all had a piece of pie and there was only one piece left. My mom knew Lorne would eat it. Since it was her favorite, she hid it in the pantry to save it for herself. Lorne couldn't figure out who ate the last piece of pie! My mom has been gone for years now, but we still get a chuckle when we think about pie!

“ Awwww Lorne, I don't even know where to start. We have known each other a long time. You became part of my family and were the son my mom and dad didn't have. When Melanie came along, you always made time to bring her over to the Conner household, whether I was there or not and you continued to do that for a lot of years. I was very blessed to have the honour of becoming Melanie's Godmother and I remember all those weekend, early weekend, mornings when you would call me and tell me you were coming to get me to keep Sandie and Melanie company while you worked. Your beautiful daughter before and after getting married would always find the time to visit with my family too. Then you did Bob and I the honour of becoming our first born Jason's Godfather. I couldn't think of a better person to do it. I could write a novel of all the fun and good times and crazy things you did, we did. One that stands out in my mind right now, was a bar that we went to in St. Catharines, I think. I forget who else was with us, but just to show how much of a card you were, you stood up from your chair and started waving to someone across the room. I asked who it was and you said nobody. You just decided to wave at no one in particular. To this day that memory pops up and always makes me laugh just like you always did. We lost touch a long time ago after you moved to the States and the last time I did see you was at Melanie and Aristi's wedding. Good times. You have left behind your girls, Melanie, Octavia and your beautiful wife Trisha who I only had the chance to meet once. My heart goes out to you Trisha. You were very lucky to have Lorne in your life and you in his. I had told Melanie that I hoped I would get to see you again and she said I will and yes I will, in heaven. But I'm not ready for that yet, so just wait for me with the rest of the family and friends who are up there and we will continue where we left off. Rest in Peace Lorne. The pain is gone and you are free. That is the only blessing. Love you to the moon and back Mr. Tatoryn.

“ Lorne was a very special friend of our family. He is my nephew (Jason Kinoshita) Godfather and Melanie is my sister's (Debbie Kinoshita) God Daughter. Our memories of Lorne are of us always laughing.....he always had a good story to share us. We have so many memories of Lorne in his younger days being at our house and he truly was a dear friend of my our parents (like a son which my parents never had). Lorne was larger than life and he had a personality to match. We would like to think Lorne is in heaven with my Dad and making Heaven laugh. Rest In Peace Lorne! Love the Conner Familyxoxo

How fortunate for Lorne to have had the heartfelt friendships of those around him, especially the friendship expressed by leading Lorne's memorial service. The musical tribute was particularly touching, and so beautifully done. Thank you for sharing your truly thoughtful and personal gift to Lorne with all of us who attended - it was so very much appreciated.

I am so sorry to hear of Lorne's passing. Although I haven't been able to spend time with him since he moved from Ontario, his smile and good nature is etched in my memory and he will always remain in my heart.
