

Mark Hosmann

June 29, 1973 - October 19, 2015

Mark Allen Hosmann, 42, of Kansas City, Missouri passed away on Monday, October 19th, 2015. His visitation will be held at Vineyard Church at 12300 NW Arrowhead Trafficway in Kansas City, MO. 64165 at 12pm followed by funeral services at 1pm. Graveside services will immediately follow at Mt. Moriah Terrace Park at 801 NW 108th St Kansas City, MO 64155. When this concludes, family and friends are invited to celebrate Mark's life at his brother, Mike's home. Mark was born on June 29th, 1973 in Kansas City, Kansas to Cheryl Peterson. Mark enjoyed traveling, scuba diving and growing salt water tanks. He loved music, especially liked making his own lyrics to them as he sang along playing his air guitar and drums. Mark also enjoyed cooking, camping, woodworking and spending time with family and friends. Mark is survived by his mother, Cheryl Peterson, his estranged wife, Tiffany Locke-Hosmann, brothers, Matthew Hosmann and Michael Branstetter, sister in law, Cara Branstetter, one niece, Mickaya and five nephews, Ty, Michael, Chase, Braedon and Benson. Mark was met at Heaven's gate by his little brother Christopher (Kit) Branstetter. Mark was a beautiful man with a smile that would light up a room and will be greatly missed by many. Flowers are welcome to be sent to the Vineyard Church. Fond memories and words of comfort may be shared at: www.CashattFamilyFunerals.com.

“ Prayers for all his family and fellow friends to find some comfort in the days and even years ahead. The thing I will remember most about Mark was that he was one of my first male friends in grade school. He was always nice to me and his smile was one of a kind. RIP My friend.
