“ To the family : my sincere condolences. There is no greater pain than the death of a loved one. Sometimes it seems almost more than a person can bear. Jehovah God helps us with this in His word, He promises us that He will put a stop to all sickness and death will be no more (REV 21;3.4) Jehovah also shows His love for us through the ransom sacrifice of His beloved son Jesus Christ. What a wonderful gift to be given ! Then the hope of seeing our loved ones again on this earth, transformed into a paradise. The Bible tells us this was Jehovah's will when He created Adam & Eve. Please take your Bible and read: (Genesis 1:26,27; John 5: 28,29; Psalms 37:11,22,29). If you have any questions or comments, you can contact me at: ricruiz@aol.com Sincerely: Rick Ruiz Schwebel.

How do you love or grieve for a father you never knew? He never cared enough about me to ever meet me. He was visiting in my city and chooses to drink and gamble vs meet me. It hurts that he or his family never cared to meet his children. Sadly I feel no sadness.

“ Dad,
R.I.P. We are sorry we never got the chance to know you or your family. We wanted and needed you as a father. That part of our life was so empty, a stepdad was not our father, you were. It is such a shame you never really got to know us because you had three awesome girls who wanted nothing more then to be loved by you.

We hope you find peace and love again with Mary. May God bless you.

Your Daughters,

Alice Jo, Dawna Charlene, and Marvis Lynn.

You may claim him as your father, he is not mine. I never met him, he never cared to meet me. I could not compete with his alcohol. He never wanted us, or tried to be a father. He was but a sperm Donner. Can't miss something you never had.
