“ Phil Brown was best friends with my daughters Father, Tobe. This is how I remembered Phil. A little on the quite side until you got to know him back in the 70's. Always smiling, no matter what. He'd turn a negative situation into a positive one. I personally never heard him say an unkind word about anyone. If you ask him your opinion on something, he was real. He wouldnt always tell you what you wanted to hear, but was up front and honest. He helped others when he could. Phil was a great listener, loved nature, fishing, music, family, friends and most of all, he Loved the Lord. Oh, now let's not forget that infectious Laugh. Sometimes laughing till he cried. Phil and I reconnected about 5 years ago after meeting over 49 years ago. We laughed, shared stories, and prayed the times we talked over the phone. He remained positive and was upbeat through out his illness. I was looking forward to seeing him when I came home. RIP,my friend.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Phil's passing. I knew him from working at Lansing High School. He had the most beautiful smile and a great laugh. I saw him about a month ago at Walmart and he said he was at peace with his prognosis. Please accept my condolences.
