“ I had the honor to work with Reid for over 20 years. He was one of the most honest, kindhearted, brave, caring, trusting and hard headed person I have ever met. I knew there was never any order out in the field that he could not handle. We always knew if Reid pick up a car or what ever had to be repo'd for us that it would be brought back to the lot without damage or anything missing from them. Reid always had Moka's back and best interest at heart. Reid was there for me many times when I was going thru alot with my family. Just his concerns, encouragements and suggestions he gave me, meant the world to me. I loved him as a big brother rather than a coworker. Reid would have given you his last dime or last shirt off his back if he knew you needed it or was in trouble. He taught me so much about skip tracing and other things in our jobs. Anytime he got upset with the business, he would call me and tell me he was quitting and turning the truck back in, I would let him rant for a while and then talk to him and calm him down and then he was fine and ready to back to work. I will truly miss him.

Nancy it was so lovely finally meeting you. I've known you damn near my whole life and NEVER got to see your face. Hard headed is defiantly the word to use to describe him us kids are all the same way. He did love you as a sister in return. He worried about you during hard times and even if he said he was ready to quit we all know damn well he wouldn't. Thank you so much for always helping him through hard times. I trully hope we meet again

“ The thing I loved most about Reid was his big heart. While his sense of humor tried to hide it, his heart always came through in his giving of himself and whatever he had available. Elizabeth (Beth) Spragg, cousin

“ There are truly too many great memories to list just one. However, I can share with you there never was and never will be anyone like my father. In my world, he was the smartest, bravest, courageous, cleaver, caring, sensitive, forgiving, and loving person on this earth. No one will ever compare to him and he took with him a piece of me when he passed on. Thank you dear father for allowing me stand by your side and walk with you, hand in hand during this last journey. Providing each other with great strength until your very last step, which was yours alone to take. You have taught me many valuable lessons in life - even now, after you have passed you continue to provide insight and guidance. I Love You and will miss you more than words can convey.

“ When I think of Reid, I think "Repo Man." He was either on his way to pick up a car or returning from picking one up always full of energy and stories. From him and Deana feeding attack dogs lunch meat to throwing himself out of a moving RV, his adventures always brought the excitement of childhood.

To his little ones, wives and lovers, I'm so sorry for your loss. He will be missed. Rebeca Spragg

“Daddy, I don't know what to say. Honestly, I can't believe this happened even though we were informed it would. Reality has began to set in. It says to share a memory, but I have to many to count. I suppose when you mom and granny brought me home after having Vivienne and I had to leave her due to the fact she needed to stay in an incubator for two extra days and when you got us home I collapsed in saddness, you picked me up and told me everything would be fine. It was. You were always my rock. My knight in shining armor. I love you forever and always, as you would say and i quote daughter #3 Alisha
