“ It has been a very long time since I have seen you, but I still remember your words you said one day and the sound of your voice when you told me that I really deserve better and some of us girls were really selling ourselves short. Of course then it didn't seem to mean much to me as a teenager who of course knew everything. You truly cared for everyone in your life no matter how long that person was around. You are a wonderful person and I know God opened His arms wide for you the day you went home. You raised 2 wonderful men and I know you are proud. Until I see you again. I send my condolences to the family. It is so hard being the one left behind, but you will be together again someday. <3
