“ Bob, I know Sally is dancing with the wolves! I can see her among those animals she adored. I pray God is giving you peace, comfort, strength, and all you need daily to live your life now! sai

“ Sally was a true friend to me. I treasured her friendship. We shared a love of animals and spoke often of our precious critters who lived with us. When we worked together, we shared several bags of crunchy Cheetos and boxes of Church's chicken. We got together as often as possible when we no longer worked together and discussed many things - books we read and, of course, our beloved critters. Henri Nouwen describes the kind of friend Sally was: "The friend who can be silent with us in a moment of despair or confusion, who can stay with us in an hour of grief and bereavement, who can tolerate not knowing...not healing..., not curing... is a friend who cares." I miss Sally and treasure her memory! Shirley Anne Inscho
