“ I met Sharon after I became engaged to her cousin, Allene Clark, and travelled with the Clarks to Christmas in Sedan at Grandpa and Grandma Foster's house. I had heard about from her Dad, when he stayed with my family in Oklahoma City while training at the FAA. I was immediately impressed with her vitality, smile, and good spirit. Allene shared with me how much she loved Sharon and the good times they had when the Royalty family stayed with the Clarks while they were home on furlough. She loved her very much, and I have some comfort in knowing that she and Sharon are celebrating together in heaven. Unfortunately, I will not be able to attend her memorial service, but everyone will be in my prayers. May God's love surround you.

“ I was blessed to have Sharon join me and my family for Thanksgiving last year. She was a joy to be around and such an inspiration for all who knew her. You have an angel in heaven that will watch over you and your family forever. You are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
