“ Cindy, my deepest sympathies to you! I worked with Tom at the AAFP, and he was one of the smartest, sweetest, funniest and kindest people I have been honored to know. His patience was outstanding. It was always a better day when I ran into Tom. When he talked about you, his face lit up, and his love for you was obvious. You are in my thoughts, Jane Pyszczyński

“ I was so sorry to learn of Tom's death. What a great guy! I vividly remember the day in the office when I asked him to teach me how to juggle. He was so patient and encouraging. . . I was so inept!

“ I will personally miss Tom, but I know he is no longer suffering. Tom was the epitome of a first class individual who would do whatever it took to take care of a client or to help his fellow team mate. Tom's professionalism and influence was the building blocks of our Help-desk operations. Tom was my friend. I will never forget Tom and my thoughts are with his family.

“ As a coworker of Tom’s for several years, I looked forward to his humor and insights every day. One of my favorite memories was walking into the office and seeing Tom juggling. Not just juggling calls and e-mails.. but literally juggling! His drawings, sayings, and jokes entertained clients and coworkers alike. Tom will be greatly missed.
